

COMPLIMENTARY BRIDAL GUIDE

The Singapore Bride's Makeup & Hair Planning Checklist

Choose a look that feels like you, prepare with confidence, and create a calm beauty timeline for your wedding day.

More than beautiful makeup. Creating memories you'll treasure for a lifetime.

01 Begin with how you want to feel

The right look enhances your features, fits your celebration, and still feels authentically you.

TIMELESS NATURAL	REFINED GLAM	KOREAN-INSPIRED
Polished skin, softly defined eyes and effortless elegance.	Greater definition and presence while remaining balanced and sophisticated.	Fresh luminosity, delicate detail and graceful, modern styling.

Start with feeling, not trends. Choose three words for how you want to feel - for example: radiant, graceful and confident. Then collect three references you love and one that shows what you prefer to avoid.

A helpful reference includes the face shape, skin finish, eye definition, lip tone and hairstyle - not only the dress or overall mood.

Your three words:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

02 Make your trial work harder

A good trial is a calm planning session - not simply a preview of the final look.

BRING	Dress photos, neckline details, veil or accessories, hairstyle references and your usual makeup photos.
SHARE	Skin sensitivities, comfort preferences, contact lenses, lash concerns and anything you strongly prefer to avoid.
OBSERVE	The look in natural light, in photographs and after several hours of normal wear.
CONFIRM	Wedding start time, artist arrival, styling order, extra family members, touch-ups and location arrangements.

Before your trial Follow your artist’s preparation instructions. Unless advised otherwise, arrive with a clean face and clean, dry hair, and avoid trying unfamiliar treatments close to the session.

Photograph the completed look from the front and both sides. Make notes while the experience is fresh: what felt most like you, what you would soften, and what you would keep.

03 Build a calm wedding-morning timeline

Work backwards from the time you must be fully dressed and ready - not from the ceremony start time.

READY TIME	Set the time you must be fully dressed for photography, travel or the gatecrash.
BUFFER	Protect time for dressing, jewellery, veil placement, photographs and small delays.
BRIDE	Confirm the artist's recommended makeup and hairstyling duration for your chosen look.
GROOM	Schedule complimentary groom makeup and hairstyling during the groom-fetching-the-bride session.
FAMILY	List mothers and entourage members in a clear styling order, with separate artists where needed.
LOCATIONS	Confirm addresses, access, parking, travel time and any location-related arrangements.

Important If the bride and groom prepare at different locations, confirm logistics, timing and any applicable charges before booking.

My must-be-ready time: _____ Artist arrival: _____

04 Help your look last beautifully

Longevity begins with preparation, a suitable finish and a simple touch-up plan for Singapore's weather.

☐	Keep your skincare routine steady; avoid experimenting with unfamiliar treatments close to the wedding.
☐	Share known skin sensitivities and comfort preferences with your artist before the actual day.
☐	Keep the preparation area cool and allow enough time so the process never needs to be rushed.
☐	Ask what should be included in your personal touch-up kit: lip colour, blotting materials, tissues and hairpins.
☐	Blot perspiration gently instead of rubbing, and ask for help before making major touch-ups.
☐	Arrange touch-ups or a hairstyle change in advance if your schedule moves from morning to evening.
